COOL WEATHER PROMISED.

The Weather Bureau Predicts a Fall of Thirty Degrees Tonight.

LATEST FROM VERSAILLES, IND.

Believed That Two or Three More May Occur This Week—Victims' Relatives Arriving.

OTHER LATE TELEPHIC NEWS.

Louisville, Sept. 16.—The weather bureau predicts a general cold wave tonight, with heavy showers and a fall of thirty degrees in temperature.

MAY BE MORE LYNCHINGS.

The Friends of the Versailles Victims Said to be Getting Ready for Vengeance.

Versailles, Ind., Sept. 16.—It is believed here that two more lynchings will occur this week. The relatives of the victims are arriving and are preparing for vengeance. There may be serious trouble yet.

FARMERS AS AVENGERS.

Quick Work of the Indiana Mob—Five Lynched in a Bunch.

Governor Mount Says the Guilty Men Must Be Punished.

Versailles, Ind., Sept. 16.—The most sensational tragedy ever known to Southern Indiana was enacted at an early hour yesterday morning, when five culprits confined in the county jail were lynched. No parallel of the event can be found, perhaps, in all the history of the state. The victims were almost beyond belief. Henry Shuter, Lyle Levi, William Jenkins, Bert Andrews and Clifford Gault were confined in the county jail on the charge of burglary. They lived in the town of Glasgow, and were supposed to belong to an organized band of thieves and highwaymen who had been robbing and terrorizing the citizens of Ripley county for a number of years, and whose headquarters were located in Glasgow.

The men were in the jail awaiting trial for having attempted to rob the general store of Wesley B. Jones. Correct justice was done Saturday night. Two of the men, Gordon and Andrews, were captured at the time, after a running battle. The other prisoners were detained on the charge of having assisted and aided in the attempted burglary.

Yesterday morning about 12 o'clock Jailer Keena was awakened by the ringing of the bell at the jail residence. On opening the door he was met by three masked men who showed pistols in his face and demanded the keys to the jail cells. At this moment Deputy Jailer Black appeared on the scene, and he was also held in restraint till the keys were secured.

In the lower cells were confined Levi, Shuter and Jenkins, and then the visitors proceeded first. Levi's cell was first reached. He was awake, and, refusing to throw up his hands at the command of the leader, two pistol shots were heard and he fell to the floor. Shuter, who was lying on his cot, was refused to get up, but begged for his life. A stroke upon the head from a heavy stick forever silenced him, and he rolled to the floor. Jenkins' fate was similar, and the three bodies were carried to the main corridor and the lynchmen made their way up stairs where Gordon and Andrews were found. They, being already wounded, submitted and their hands were tied behind them. Ropes were placed around their necks and they were dragged down the stairway where their companions lay. Ropes were placed around the necks of all, and the order was given by the leader, "Pull on the ropes, boys, a d d hurry up." The command was obeyed and the bodies were dragged out into the street.

The entire program of action had evidently been carefully planned in its minutest detail. Not a word was spoken as the five victims were dragged through the main street of the village to an old elm tree near the outskirts. The prisoners not already dead were unconscious. As far as the mob knew all were dead. This cut no figure, however, for had they all been alive they would have been handled just as they were.

SILVER CRAZE COOLING.

Crowd at the Silver Camp Meeting at Springfield Rather Small.

Springfield, O. Sept. 15.—The silver camp meeting arranged to continue here a week began today with a somewhat smaller assemblage than was expected. It is called a national free-silver camp-meeting. A number of silver speakers of note are engaged for each day. A great tent has been erected on the fair grounds for the speaking which will seat 6,000 and give accommodation for 20,000.

Rain in St. Louis. St. Louis, Sept. 16.—Heavy rains are falling today, and the great drought seems to be broken.

THE SOUTHERN SCOURGE.

Yellow Fever Slowly Making Headway.

Refugees Fleeing From the South—More Cities Being Quarantined.

Only one death from yellow fever was reported yesterday, but the appearance of new cases at different points greatly increased the alarm in the Southern states. The Government expert has pronounced eleven of the forty suspicious cases at Edwards, Miss., to be yellow fever, and the city of Jackson, near by, is in panic stricken. The most stringent quarantine regulations exist throughout Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. A rail traffic on the railroads in Mississippi has been almost suspended. Refugees are coming north in large numbers. The Gulf states are panic stricken, despite the fact that as yet the cases are not numerous and the percentage of deaths very small.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 16.—All the fears of the citizens of Jackson in regard to the sickness prevalent at Edwards have been realized. Dr. Pruitt, the government expert, has confirmed eleven cases of yellow fever, and says there are many suspects.

The state board has instructed Dr. Pruitt to place a cordon of guards around Edwards at once. Report says that the disease has also appeared at Clinton, and Shreveport, La. The board has also ordered the discontinuance of trains on the Louisville, Mississippi branch of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road.

Yazoo City, Miss., has issued orders for a stringent quarantine to be enforced. No trains are allowed to stop except to exchange mails at the quarantine station. No passengers are allowed to leave the trains at all, and all mail and express must be fumigated. Guards armed to the teeth are placed along the county boundaries, but in spite of these rigid rules several have managed to get in, some even coming from infected districts.

Two drummers who came Monday were taken yesterday and put in quarantine.

WESTERN BROTHER TO JUSTICE.

Governor Mount Expresses Himself Fully on the Versailles Lynching.

Indianapolis, Sept. 16.—When Governor Mount received information that five men had been lynched in Indiana, he immediately sent the following message to the sheriff of Ripley county:

To the Sheriff of Ripley County, Versailles, Ind.: Wire me at once particulars of lynching reported to have occurred in your county. I further direct that you proceed, with all the power you can command, to bring to justice all parties participating in the murder of the five men alleged to have been lynched. Such lawlessness is intolerable, and all the powers of the state, if necessary, will be vigorously invoked for the arrest and punishment of all parties implicated.

JAMES A. MOUNT, Governor.

The governor was very much wrought up and indignant that the state should spoil so beautiful a record. His business methods ought to be good assurance that the men who committed the outrage will be, as he says, brought to justice with the least possible delay.

DIED AMONG STRANGERS.

J. W. Burns, a R. R. Engineer, Succumbs to Typhoid.

J. W. Burns, aged 45, died of typhoid-malaria fever on a shanty boat below the iron-furnace this morning, after about a month's illness.

ARGUMENTS HEARD.

McGill Case Goes to the Jury Today.

GOOD SPEECHES ON BOTH SIDES.

McGill Looked Stolidly on and Seemed Indifferent.

VERDICT AWAITED WITH INTEREST.

The evidence in the McGill case was concluded in the circuit court yesterday afternoon late, and by this time tomorrow McGill will probably know his fate. There were numerous other witnesses to hear, but as this was deemed inexpedient and vain, they were not called.

Arguments began this forenoon, when County Attorney Houser, for an hour and a half, made an eloquent appeal to the jury to avenge the alleged crime.

Attorney C. K. Wheeler, for the defense, spoke for an hour and fifty minutes, and made a splendid argument in behalf of the defendant.

This afternoon Attorney L. K. Taylor opened with a good speech for the prosecution, and at present Attorney Mark Worthen was addressing the jury in behalf of the prisoner.

It is likely that the jury will get the case by night.

McGill sat throughout the arguments without any manifestations of emotion one way or the other. Sometimes, however, he smiled scornfully and then relapsed into indifference, and energetically manifested his contempt.

The verdict is awaited with a little interest.

COBB'S BRIGADE.

Big Preparations for a Reunion at Kuttawa.

Capt. W. J. Stone Greatly Interested in the Affair.

bold a reunion of Cobb's famous first Kentucky battery at Kuttawa some time soon. Capt. W. J. Stone's old company will participate, and also Capt. W. H. Green's. It is proposed to make this one of the most interesting old soldiers' gatherings ever held in the state. Under the old beech at the Mint Springs, the now scattered veterans organized as infantry under Gen. H. B. Lyon thirty-six years ago. On the 4th of July, 1861, the flower of Lyon county set out for Camp Boone.

At Bowling Green the company was organized into the First Kentucky battery, the first engagement being on the bloody field of Shiloh.

After Gen. Lyon's promotion as colonel of the Eighth Kentucky, Robertson Cobb, now a resident of Texas, was given command of the battery, which retained his name to the end of the war.

Capt. Cobb's colors of the battle-blackened uniforms of the old battery, and the battery emblem of many a bloody field will be brought from Texas and hung about the old beech, which still stands a sturdy monument of the past.

Gen. Lyon, who first organized and equipped the company, now resides at Kuttawa, and is interesting himself in the reunion.

Cobb's first battery is famous throughout the country, and when the reunion is held many local veterans, as well as many other citizens, may be counted on to attend.

MESS AT MURRAY.

Over the County Judgeship Vacancies.

Quarterly court was called Tuesday at Murray and adjourned sine die because of the death of the county judge, leaving a vacancy and depriving the court of a presiding officer.

There is some question as to the legality of the bar electing a special judge. The lawyers offered on the point to make sure there was no court held. Attorney Coleman contended that a special judge could be elected under the statute giving the bar authority to elect from any cause of the regular judge's failure to attend for preside. Messrs. Cook, Linn and Holt argued that there was no regular judge, but a vacancy, and hence no absence. According to their ideas the law failed to provide for the election of a special judge in this particular instance.

Mr. Coleman's contention that the words "from any cause" covered the case.

BACK TO WORK.

Ten Thousand Miners Return to Their Mines Today.

WOMEN TAKING A HAND.

Force Five Hundred Miners to Lay Down Their Tools.

THE HUNTER CASE ON TRIAL.

Pittsburg, Pa. Sept. 16.—The great strike seems to be over. Ten thousand men returned to work today in this district alone.

Woman's Work. Hazleton, Pa., Sep. 16.—Women miners forced 500 men here to quit work today.

THAT HUNTER CASE.

Is Now on Trial at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Sept. 16.—The Hunter bribery case was called this morning and the jury sworn, but after that the court adjourned to this afternoon.

The grand jury is investigating the bribery cases and may possibly return more indictments.

A PITIFUL SIGHT.

Rhoda Bowen Sent to Graves County.

Rhoda Bowen, who has been in the city hospital suffering from dropsy of the feet and a complication of ill, was sent to Pryorburg at noon today.

The woman is unable to walk without support, and is a pitiful object to behold. In addition to her physical condition, the woman's mind has been ruined by excessive use of opiates.

As she was put aboard the train the spectacle elicited many remarks of sympathy and surprise from bystanders.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

Of the "Rough on Rats" Poisoning at Matamoras.

Henry Miller, the Father, Died From His Illness.

Henry Miller, the Metropolis man who partook of "rough on rats" placed in the breakfast by his demoted daughter a week or two ago, died last night, according to reports which reached the city this morning.

PADUCAH ARCHITECT.

Drawing the Plans for Mayfield Improvements.

Mr. Britton Davis, of Paducah, is drawing the plans for the four brick business rooms on West Broadway, says the Mayfield "Monitor."

The corner room is to be three stories in height and the others two, and the building is to be up-to-date in every respect.

Mr. Summerville has been working on his next to these. This is also to be two stories high and of modern style. Next to this is Hon. R. E. Johnston's building, on which work will soon begin. Never within her history has Mayfield been making so many improvements in the way of building as at present.

Mr. J. T. Webb, it is learned, will erect brick business houses on his corner lot on Broadway, and Mr. Will Shelton will build a large brick livery stable just south of the Presbyterian church.

CALLED MEETING.

Of the School Board for Tonight.

The school board meets tonight in called session to straighten out matters relative to the overloading schools. There are some grades too full and a more equal apportionment will have to be made.

The matter of holding school only half a day until hot weather ceases will probably not come up. If it does, it is likely from what has been heard that the board will decline to make such a change, even for a short time.

Suits Filed. Mrs. Mary Jane Hart sued J. B. and J. R. Leigh on a note for $100.

W. B. Nichols, administrator of W. B. Harper, sued S. L. Dale for $24, on a note.

The City National Bank sued the Brockman Pottery Co. for $162.55, alleged to have been paid on a Robinson Glass and Queensware check on September 3.

Killed By a Train. A mule of Mr. B. D. Thompson, of Benton, escaped from the wagon yard last night. This morning it was found at Sixth and Campbell streets, where it is supposed an Illinois Central switch engine struck and killed it.

Eat the best: Stutz's motor car, a superb.

FORMER DEMOCRATIC LEADER.

Nominated By the Republicans For Councilman at Princeton.

The Republicans met in convention at Princeton Wednesday and nominated Ben Kaufman, formerly of Louisville, for Mayor of Princeton, and the following ticket for councilmen: P. J. Foong, William Kirk, John C. Gates, W. H. Rich and R. R. Pickering. A great deal of significance is attached to the nomination of Mr. Pickering, as he has been a leader of the Democratic party in this county for twenty years, and refused less than two months ago to allow his name on the joint silver ticket. He was a candidate for sheriff before the silverite primary, and this action is taken by his friends as evidence that his views on the money question have undergone a radical change.

CANDIDATE FOR CORONER.

Mr. George Phelps Wants to Fill the Vacancy on the Democratic Ticket.

The death of undertaker Charles Roth leaves a vacancy on the Democratic ticket, as he was the regular nominee for coroner of the county. The committee will shortly be called to fill the vacancy.

Mr. George Phelps, who was recently a candidate for magistrate, is a candidate and today is passing a petition asking that his name be substituted on the ticket for that of Mr. Roth.

ROBINSON-FRANKLIN HOLIDAY.

The Coming of the Greatest Shows On Earth—A Real Holiday.

Every one is on the "qui vive" over the fact that the great Robinson and Franklin Bros.' Shows are coming to Paducah September 23.

This biggest of all big shows has everywhere met with the most enthusiastic reception, and the prospect of other cities do not hesitate to proclaiming it the most wonderful exhibition ever seen under canvas.

In point of novelty or in the number of features, no other amusement enterprise can even approach the Robinson and Franklin Bros.' Shows.

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

"Speaking of steamboat mates, I remember a case once in which I was employed to defend 'Old Hoss' McHenry, a well known mate who recently died. Some man sued him for $2,500 for assault and battery. He charged in his petition that 'Old Hoss' struck him and made a 'crack' in his neck. 'Old Hoss' came around to employ me, and remarked as he walked into the office, in his deep, hoarse voice, 'H—! I didn't do anything to that man. He gave me some of his crack and I hit him with my left hand.'"

"What did he do when you hit him? I asked."

"Oh he just fell from the lat-board side of the boat over to the starboard side, and went head foremost into a skiff tied up to the boat."

"Major Harris presented the case and the trial came off and in his speech that the only thing remarkable about the affair was that there was anything left of his client to fall head foremost into the skiff after the big mate got through with him."

"A good joke is told at the expense of a popular Broadway merchant, who is a great lover of horseflesh and a good judge of it. The other day a 'busted' sport approached him, and poured a pitiful tale of woe into his ears. He wanted twenty dollars and said he had a horse around at the livery stable, which he would put up as collateral. The merchant could not resist that hard luck story and deeming the security good, advanced the money. A day or two ago he went around and took a look at the animal. He is worth about $5 at the most, and now the merchant contemplates getting rid of him."

"The expert testimony introduced yesterday in the McCall case was principally to show that the wounds inflicted by McCall on his wife were not necessarily fatal. The doctors, or some of them, testified that much worse wounds had come under their observation which occasioned the patients little suffering, and from which they soon recovered. Yet the insignificant scratch of a pin has been known to kill the victim. Some of the doctors of the county said the wounds were necessarily fatal, but it is likely that the testimony introduced by the defense yesterday may have a tendency to overthrow such an opinion."

The east bound I. C. train is daily crowded with refugees from the South, who are seeking escape from the 'argely' 'chimerical' 'Yellow Jack.' The passengers all report much difficulty and inconvenience in their journey towards safety. Many of them have hastily abandoned home and business, have taken what little money they had laid up for a rainy day, as it were, and started impetuously for the North. Many of them who had no ready money sold property, furniture and jewelry at a great sacrifice, and in a few weeks are wandering their way back—if they find the means of getting back—to kick themselves for the next several months for making such fools of themselves."

probation, the author of which could not spell the name of even his own wife and children. It was indeed—the instrument was—in a cramped, illegible hand, and had it been required to pass muster on correct orthography, grammar or readability, it would have straightway been thrown out of court."

It is thus in many cases. Deeds, wills and mortgages, written by men and women who are afraid of lawyers, and have undertaken to draw up their own papers, are filed and can hardly be read. One seen recently starts out: "I — — — being sound in mind but feebly in body, do make this" etc., burial being spelled "berial," and beloved, "beluvud."

"I see where the Board of Health wants the stand pipe cleaned out," remarked Assistant Chain Gang Overseer Emil Goureaux this morning.

"Now I want it understood," he continued, "if the Board of Health thinks me and that chain gang are going to bail out that stand pipe it is greatly mistaken. I'll resign first!" He then walked off to conceal a smile.

Officer Frank Harlan sauntered up Broadway this morning shortly before 7 o'clock. His eyes blinked merrily as he looked in first one door and then in another.

Presently he stopped in front of a cigar store, where a good looking girl was sweeping.

"Now daughter," he said affectionately, "you mustn't sweep that trash out into the gutter. You know I am sorry to do it, but orders are orders."

The girl smiled and began sweeping the trash back. The officer directly ran across another pretty girl sweeping out, and in a gracious, polite manner, also called her "daughter," and requested her to sweep the trash back.

Then he reached a military store, and there was a colored girl black as ebony sweeping great heaps of trash out the door.

"Now daughter-in-law—, I mean little girl—little girl—, you'll have to sweep that"—he started as he became more and more confused by the laughter of several bystanders.

"Oh, I don't care!" he concluded desperately, without finishing his instructions to the colored girl. "She's only sweeping off the sidewalk anyway!"

He now says "daughter" is not a good term to apply to every one.

THE DAY OF DAYS.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5.

This is called the day of days because it is upon that day that Paducah will have its first opportunity to see the most famous exhibition the world has ever known; as well known in Europe as in America: the first public exhibition ever attended by Queen Victoria during her widowhood; the only public exhibition and the first public event of any sort to call together in one assembly over 300 members of the royal families of Europe—an absolute historical fact: the only American exhibition that has ever exhibited in nearly all the capitals of Europe, including London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Madrid and Rome.

It is the same in every detail as the great exhibition which spent an entire season at Earl's court, London; at the Exposition Universelle, at Paris, and for man and beast for horse the same exhibition which successfully vied with the Columbian World's Fair at Chicago in '93 for public popularity.

Nay, it is even more—bigger, greater, grander, more comprehensive. All the features it possessed then will be brought to Paducah and many more which it did not have then.

It is the same great exhibition which spent the entire season of 1893 at Ambrose park, Brooklyn; the season of '95 in the principal cities of the east and south, and the season of '96 in the principal cities of the west.

It is the same exhibition which began its season of 1897 at Brooklyn and after two weeks there went across the river to Madison Square Garden, New York City, where for three weeks it actually turned away thousands of persons every day and broke all records for attendance and receipts in the world's history of amusements. Another fact.

It is the same great exhibition to which New York's great newspapers gave over 200 columns of notices, stories and illustrations in three weeks' time—an entirely unprecedented honor.

It is the same exhibition and it is still led by that great American citizen, scout and soldier, Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill). He is the same scout who gallantly served under Kentucky's great soldier, whose death alone, perhaps, prevented his name from being first on the scroll of martial fame, the still and ever laurelled Gen. Albert Sydney Johnston; the same scout whose bravery, heroism and invaluable services to his country have been attested by every general in the regular army of the United States during the past thirty-five years.

He is the same citizen, born in a humble farm house on the banks of the Mississippi, his scant scholastic education in a country school house, who, before his teens, was in the saddle in his country's service; who fairly stepped from the camp of the hunter, the tepee of the Indian, the bivouac of the soldier, into the saloons of Europe—in which for years he was over a welcome guest; the modest gentleman whose innate dignity and graceful bearing and physical perfection amazed all Europe; which equipped such attributes could come only from generations of gentle birth and aristocratic associations.

It is this same true soldier and gentleman who pledges his honor to the people of Paducah that not only are all the foregoing statements absolutely true, but also that he will be here in Paducah in person and participate in both the afternoon and evening exhibitions.

This will be the last chance Kentuckians will have of seeing this exhibition this season. Tuesday, October 5, is the day. The exhibit will be in St. Louis all the week before, and you are most cordially invited to see the St. Louis papers of Tuesday, September 28, and learn from them the true character of this great exhibition. From St. Louis it goes to Memphis on Monday; Paducah, Tuesday; Union City, Wednesday; Nashville, Thursday; Chattanooga, Friday; Atlanta, Georgia, Saturday. Thereafter east and north.

Remember, please, this is not a circus. It is nothing like a circus. It has nothing in common with a circus, save men and horses. The circus you have with you always. Sometimes the circus is big and worthy; oftener it is little and cheap; cheap in name, cheap in character, cheap in price—dear at any price. They depend for their existence upon the gaudy and supposed ignorance of people from the country. They hope to reduce them out of their money by exaggeration and skillful deceit. The old cry, "Prices reduced for this day only," is an old "gag," but they think they can make it win. When they say, "which they don't"—Brought to 25 cents, they come much nearer the truth. They never charge more.

An apology is really due the public for this mere allusion to such concerns and their methods, but it really does seem too bad to have innocent and ignorant persons gulled out of their only opportunity to see the exhibition which moved the great American editor, Murt Halstead, to say editorially in the Brooklyn "Standard-Union" of May 4, 1897: "It is somebody's crime if all the children do not see it."

Be reminded once more that the day of days will be

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5.

PADUCAH.

LOCAL MENTION.

Will Become a Y. M. C. A. Secretary.
Mr. A. Knox, of Pine Bluff, Ark., is a guest of Secretary Workman, of the Y. M. C. A. He is a graduate of the Y. M. C. A. training school at Chicago, and is studying to become a Y. M. C. A. secretary.

FOR RENT.—A good house, 633 North Fourth street. Apply to Capt. E. R. Dutt, at Palmer, or Mr. C. E. Jennings. 15-2

Drink the best: Stutz's orange phosphate. 14-5

Hits Wanted.
I will receive bids at my store in Mechanicsburg until Saturday, the 16th, for hauling about 1200 yards of gravel on the Paducah and Benton gravel road. 13-4

Campbell Mulvihill Coal Company will fill your coal house now cheaper than anyone. Call and make contract. 15-1

Dr. Edwards, Specialty, Eyes, Ear, Nose and Throat, Paducah, Ky. 15-1

Day and Night School.
Special attention is given to arithmetic and writing, as well as the business department at the Smith Business College, corner Third and Madison streets. No classes. Any age admitted. Students can enter at any time. 14-1

Candidates Cards.
Printed at this office in a style, fit for the occasion. 14-1

A Precinct Error.
In the change of voting precincts, detailed in County Clerk Graham's circular, it is stated that one of the city precincts is "the brick building at Ninth and Clay." There is no brick building there, and the one at Tenth and Clay is probably the building meant. 14-1

Tax Notice.
This is the last month you have to pay your state and county taxes. Don't fail to attend to this, as I will be compelled to collect the penalty after September 1st. 14-1

W. C. Lusk, County Clerk, Paducah, Ky. 14-1

If the school wish to have a carefully selected line of millinery at a reasonable price, call on Mrs. Z. C. C. at 217 Broadway, next door to E. H. Rody & Co. 15-1

There is nothing more when every only should take a half holiday. That day will be Buffalo Bill day, or Oct. 5. It is only once in a lifetime when the place is crowded to see such an exhibition as the here-coming of the great Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World. It may be his last visit to this city, as Europe is demanding his return to that continent. 14-1

North Ready for Business.
The DeJonghessen will be opened to the public about Saturday. It has been furnished in the most elegant style, and nothing will be spared to make it one of the most complete and popular resorts in the city. Mr. Charles E. Curtis, the well known young drummer, is the proprietor, but Mr. Charles Hawkins will be in charge of it. 14-1

Nice ash stove wood delivered promptly to any part of the city. Telephone 29. E. E. BELL. 14-1

To the Public:

Many of our customers have asked the question, "Why don't you move on Broadway, as you have as much as large a stock as anybody?" Now we must answer the question. A store on Broadway means a finer store—higher rent, finer fixtures, more clerks, more lights, etc. This all means more profit, and you have to pay for it.

Here are some Court street prices:

SHOE DEPARTMENT.

Men's fine dress shoes, Broadway price $3.50 to $5.00—our price, $2.00 to $2.50.
